

House Resolution No.

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself as a leader of her community; and

Whereas, Christin Green was recently honored as an Emerging Leader nominee by Missouri State University and the Ozarks Alliance of Professional Organizations; and

Whereas, Christin Green is the founder of Jane D.O.E. (Daughters of Eve), a student organization founded to educate, empower, and support women's issues and rights; and

Whereas, a language and literature major with a minor in gender studies, Christin Green has led the campus' V-Day activities and arranged march's Women's History Month activities almost single-handedly; and

Whereas, a junior from Liberty, Christin Green is already working to evoke change and hopes to see the inception of a women's resource center, a clearing house offering everything from counseling services to health care education for area women; and

Whereas, Christin's work with Jane D.O.E. earned her recognition as the first ever "Emerging Leader" in the Women of Distinction Leadership Awards program:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Christin Green at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Christin Green.
